

Maurice T. O'Callaghan

Touching hearts, changing lives...

Maurice O'Callaghan is one of Canada's finest and most gifted professional speakers. Born in Toronto, educated at York University and the University of Western Ontario, Maurice brings a wealth of personal and managerial experience to the speaking platform.

A senior manager for three decades with one of Canada's most successful corporations, Maurice has extensive experience in the fields of customer service, marketing, communications, public relations and human development. In 1986 Maurice converted his knowledge into a highly successful career as a motivational speaker whose presentations consistently receive rave reviews.

Timeless values, unforgettable experiences and humour are skilfully integrated into every presentation. Through his exceptional delivery and powerful insights, audiences learn practical and proven approaches to enriching their lives as individuals and as critical members of the organizations that depend upon them.

Maurice is a member of the International Federation for Professional Speakers, the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers and the Professional Speakers Association of Michigan. He's listed in "Who's Who in Professional Speaking," has been featured in business, lifestyles and events sections of both community and national newspapers and has appeared on radio and television. The son of an internationally famous musician, Maurice also played professional football with the Toronto Argonauts Football Club.

His work has won him a legion of friends and the gratitude of thousands whose lives he has touched across North America and the Caribbean. The impact of his message is demonstrated by the fact that over 80 percent of his engagements are the result of referrals by people who have benefited from his programs. Audiences across North America and the Caribbean have discovered that hearing Maurice is a unique, inspiring and life changing experience.
